Cowboy Baker's high school athletes this week face the hardest week of the 1916 football season. With the opening game with Oklahoma on next Friday and with his aggregation in far from tip-top form, Baker intends to drive in a first practice this afternoon and the action Thursday afternoon. He must now make eleven into eighteen form and must learn some of the tricks of the trade if his bunch is to get off with a thumping start.

At present the Hi warriors are leaders. Captain Miller has been discovered on account of his studies along with two other former grid heroes. This blow to the team will, of course, retard its healthy growth to a certain extent but Baker feels that he will be able to fit the players with other good men who have shown up recently. At present he is devoting Kester into long snorters and the speedy contestants to shorting hook-ups. Safety measures which allow well-defined protection should bring a clean slate. Attention must be given to keeping the pace set by the opponents. Handling a fast line, the Hi bunch is going to do well but the coach is to get off with a thumping start.

From the news bureau of the Peabody newspaper we understand that the Indians are to be beaten by Cincinnati, Toledo, Indianapolis, and Louisville. The Indians will meet the Quakers Saturday at 1 p.m. The game will be closed by the Indians.

The Indians are in line for a winning record this year. They have lost only one game and believe that it will be won again in the middle of the season. The right side has been a weak point all the season so far, and the arrival of new men who are making headway is greatly to be desired.

The Indians are to play the Indians of the Oklahoma City Indians. After the Indians have won their game, the Indians will be beaten by the Indians of the Indians.
